ORAL ORDER

(Passed on this 13th day of December, 2007)

1. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that this petition, challenging the impugned order dated 16.12.1999 (Annexure P/20), passed by the State Government, has become infructuous, in view of the fact that subsequent developments have taken place to the effect that the respondent No.6 was initially granted prospecting licence and thereafter that licence granted in favour of the respondent No. 6 was cancelled vide order dated 14.12.2001.
2. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents have no objection to the above submission made by learned counsel appearing for the petitioner.
3. In view of the above, this petition has become infructuous. The petitioner reserves his rights and contentions in the other matters, which are pending consideration before this Court.
4. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No order asto costs.
